

So warm, safe and dry
I wish that you could see me
Things have changed in time
You know it hasn't been easy
We never said goodbye
So all the pain is near me
All the pain is near me
It all takes a while
For wounds that are healing
Sometimes it really hurts
You can't stop believing
There's a long way to go
But it fades away
It fades away

Not Tonight Josephine
Things in my mind that I've seen
Would you believe when I say
The world is changing day by day
Not Tonight Josephine
All the evil that I've seen
Changed my mind about the way that I should be

Let's all wave goodbye
It's time for us to go now

We'd never say we cry

Things will move so slow now

One day at a time

Is all we could do

All we could do

Not Tonight Josephine

Things in my mind that I've seen

Would you believe when I say

The world is changing day by day

Not Tonight Josephine

All the evil that I've seen

Changed my mind about the way that I should be
