

VERSE 1

All of the questions, in the world
Won't get answers for my girl
And so the reasons are for sage

Live for the pleasures of the world
That's what it's here for my girl
Don't you know its reign.

I've seen the world devolve
In solitude and vein
Just salt, Jesus Christ again.

CHORUS

You don't know me
Why you say you think you do
You don't know me
I've seen the other side of you.

VERSE 2

So what is your story, oh do tell
It's not so different, beggars tell
So are the memoirs of this time.

Playing your cards close to your heart
It's purer in ways than you are
Don't let it go so far

I feel we're in a bowl
With souls forever in pain
Goodnight, we'll meet again

CHORUS 2

You don't know me
Why you say you think you do
You don't know me
I've seen the other side of you.

I've been so lonely
I think the other point of view
You won't know me
Now I'm runnin' 'round this Zoo

SOLO

2 x Chorus out
